International Drive Improvement District Welcomes Thousands of Fans for Orlando's Bowl-a-Palooza FanFest on I•Drive at Pointe Orlando

DECEMBER 26, 2008 – JANUARY 1, 2009

The world's # 1 tourist destination will once again be the focus of the entire country as International Drive is the site for a week long Bowl-a-Palooza FanFest leading up to two Florida Citrus Sports Bowl Games December 27, 2008 and January 1, 2009.

The International Drive Improvement District is a premiere sponsor with Florida Citrus Sports for the event-packed week. More than 100,000 fans are expected to join in the festivities during the Champs Sports Bowl at 4:30 p.m. on December 27, 2008 when Florida State University plays the University of Wisconsin and for the Capital One Bowl at 1 p.m. on January 1, 2009 when the University of Georgia plays Michigan State University.

Both games are played at the Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium in downtown Orlando, the only city to annually host two top 10 bowl games in the same week.

The Champs Sports Bowl will be televised nationally on ESPN and the Capital One Bowl will be televised nationally on ABC.

Visitors are invited to bring the entire family to the Int'l Drive Resort Area for a fun-packed week of activities leading up to the big games! Live music, interactive games for the entire family, inflatables, a football field for the quarterback challenge, pep rallies, photo opportunities with the players and more! Many Bowl-A-Palooza FanFest events will take place at Pointe Orlando (www.pointeorlando.com) with more than 40 unique stores, great restaurants, nightlife and entertainment. Florida Citrus Sports will have a merchandise store on the first level that will sell team merchandise, Champs Sports Bowl and Capital One bowl patches and discounted Universal tickets.

Complimentary parking will be available with purchase of a bowl patch. Daily admission is $5 or a Bowl Patch may be purchased for $10 for the entire week by going to www.bowlapalooza.com or www.ticketmaster.com.
